New Trade School To Be Established Here

LOOP-THE-LOOP star of the Gainesville Community Circus is vivacious Mary Louise Bezner, who revolves on a flying trapeze, high in the arena, one of the big thrill features of the performance.

Thrills Aplenty Throughout 3 Ring Gainesville Circus

Thrills aplenty are to be found in the performance of the Gainesville Community Circus, which comes to the Bear Club Rodeo Stadium in Waco on June 17 and 18 at 8:00 p. m. under the sponsorship of the Heart O'Texas Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Spine-tickling exhibitions are presented by a trio of pretty girls in the big aerial displays of the show. First there is Mary Louise Bezner, whose trapeze is a feature of the 15-girl aerial ballet.

Pat Reagan, known as the "human fly" climbs a rope to the top of the tent and walks across the ceiling of the canvas arena, supported only by foot loops. Morris Hansen, the physical culture boy, amazes with his muscle grind endurance test on the flying trapeze, often throwing his body round the bar half a hundred times. And to climax this series of dare-devil aerial feats, Evelyn Kaps slides 200 feet from the top of the tent to the ground, supported only by her teeth.

But there are many other thrilling numbers in the program from the opening bareback principal acts to the final feature, the flying return act, in which aerialists flash through space, performing somersaults, pirouettes and twisters to the hands of their catcher.

Billy Alexander rides roman style on a team of galloping horses, driving fast and furiously, as many as eight Shetland ponies ahead of him. Double trapeze performers hurtle through the air in break-away feats, and bareback riders turn somersaults off the backs of galloping steeds.

Three troupes of tight wire artists, dance, jump obstacles and ride bicycles on slender strands of steel with reckless abandon high in the air.

There are numerous other acts throughout the two-hour program that fall into the thrill category, and all in all, the circus performance is of big calibre which appeals to every member of the family.

WHITE VETERANS TO GET WELDING COURSE

A survey is being made to determine the need for a Vocational Welding School in Cameron.

This proposed school will be operated by W. B. Brazelton of this city and will offer a 12 months course in Combination Welding to white veterans.

Mr. Brazelton says that persistent inquiries from white veterans regarding a technical course of this type has prompted him to conduct this survey.

All white ex-service men who are interested in enrolling for a course of training in Combination Welding should contact Mr. Brazelton at the Cameron Trade School, 509 West Eighth Street in Santa Fe town or call 175.

Mr. Brazelton has one of the finest and best equipped Combination Welding Schools in the state in operation here for Colored veterans. It was recently completed and placed in operation and is well staffed and patronized.

In establishing a white veterans school to offer courses in Combination Welding Mr. Brazelton brings an entirely new school to Cameron, with new equipment and entirely seperate facilities.

Cameron Needs A Mowing Service Privately Owned

Cameron needs a mowing service privately owned.

There is an excellent opportunity for someone with energy and ability to supply this service for the property owners of Cameron and there is also the possibilities of serving the city government since the city has no such service.

That there are money making opportunities no one will deny.

Cameron covers a large area. Home owners have no way of cutting weeds on vacant lots nor on their own properties where they extend beyond their lawns and then in some cases power service is necessary.

Such a service must be motor equipped. At least one and possibly two small tractors with all equipment plus trucking facilities to haul trash. True such equipment would require a small investment of capital but the right man might get such a deal financed.

Such a service was advocated several years ago and was so widely recognized that it found its way to a Chamber of Commerce circular on "What Cameron Needs."

There are possibilities for year around employment for ground breaking in the fall and winter and early spring has become such a problem here that not many will undertake gardening.

If you are interested in establishing a needed service, therefore one that will pay you well, let's talk it over. The demand insures money making. The city could and no doubt would co-operate, at least to the extent of requiring weeds to be cut on vacant properites. Want to get into a profitable business? Now is the time. Property owners will pay well for such a service.

VISHINSKY DISRUPTS PARIS CONFERENCE

Hopes were dim Wednesday for any measure of success at the Four Minister Conference in Paris over the German question.

The Red, Vishinsky, proposed that the control of Germany be returned to the four powers. This policy failed and led to the blockade of Berlin.

France, Britain and the United States immediately rejected the suggestion.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson said that he now has little hope any good can come of dealing with the Bolsheviks. Most every one knew that before they met.

"My hopes are distinctly chilled," said Mr. Acheson.

BIDS DUE ON ARMORY UNIT

POULTRY PROGRAM IN COUNTY IS GROWING

The Chamber of Commerce in its current news letter to members says that conservative estimates indicate that there will be 60,000 turkeys produced in Milam county.

Some factors close to the produce trade scout this claim but feel that there will be a considerable increase over the 1948 crop. Last year some 15,500 turkeys were produced in the county.

Turkey prices have been high and may continue to be high. Last year the peak price was 57c. Market turkeys in the main averaged around 20 lbs. on foot. The average turkey at peak prices last year would bring around $10.00.

If the 1949 crop is 60,000 it would mean a million, two hundred thousand pounds of turkeys, if the average were 20 lbs. At current turkey prices such a crop would bring 600 thousand dollars.

Some produce men were inclined to think the crop might not be over 30,000 and at best not over 40,000.

Whatever the crop there is certain to be an increase. Basil Wilson at the Wilson Produce Company here announced his company would finance 30,000 turkeys last winter and response has been very good in the county.

TAKE FIRST PLACE IN RACES AT GATESVILLE

The Racing Team in the Cameron Volunteer Fire Department, won first place in the competition at Gatesville on Sunday.

The occasion was the convention of Central Texas Firemen.

Cameron's team won the $75 purse with the time of 20 and 2 tenths seconds. Brownwood won second prize and Seguin won third.

The competition is to race with a hose reel a block, connect the hose and turn on water. The time is made from the starter's gun to the time water issues from the regulation firefighting hose nozzle. This is an old feature of firemen's convention and Cameron has been one of the consistent winners through the years.

Porubsky was arrested by Highway Patrolmen in Buckholts recently for driving a car without a license. The suspension date is August 7, 1949.

DENTON HAS BLOW

A storm swept over Denton early Tuesday and among other losses reported was the airport hanger. The streets were littered with broken tree limbs and other debris. Thundershowers were peppering rain over a wide area of north Texas.

INITIAL SPENDING TO BE AROUND $60,000

Bids on the first unit of the National Guard Armory will soon be in the hands of the Board at Austin, it was learned here this week.

Unofficially it was said the bids may be received this week end.

The people of Cameron will be glad to know that progress is being made on this fine development here. During the recent canvas for funds to purchase a site for the armory, full details were given on the possible size and cost of this construction.

The people paid $6000 for some 20 acres of land on West 8th Street and Buckholts Road and in addition raised money for utility installations.

The first unit of the Armory will be a motor maintenance building to cost around $45,000. This will be covered in bids which may be called for this week. In addition streets and sidewalks are to be built, it was understood and this will entail some $15,000 or less.

The main building at the site will be the armory and this is estimated to cost some $500,000. It will be large enough and so constructed as to provide many facilities, including an auditorium that will be for general public use.

Armory sites are being established over the state and bids are being taken at this time for construction of the first units.

POLIO PREVENTION IS AIM OF PRECAUTIONS

First steps in the Polio prevention campaign of 1949 will be taken here Wednesday when a committee meets to make plans for the cleanup which gets under way June 6.

The Chamber of Commerce has mailed out notices to members of the conference and to the press.

Dr. C. G. Swift is Chairman of the Committee for Health and Sanitation in the Chamber of Commerce and will direct the clean up in the city.

Representatives from the Civic Clubs of the city have been asked to attend the meeting Wednesday at 1 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce offices.

Rumors spread here early this week that Cameron had two cases of Polio were unfounded so far as Dr. Freeman, head of the County Health Unit, knows. Dr. Freeman has had no reports from physicians on any polio case here.

All phases of the plan will be discussed and details will worked out. Assignments will be made and the work organized along the lines of the campaign in 1948 when Polio was a definite development.

Inspections will be made and days will be designated for each step in the plan to thoroughly clean the city.

One necessity will be to raise funds for insecticides that will be needed for some who cannot buy them.

Bremond Farmers Complain About Tomato Gradings

BREMOND, May 23—About 42,000 pounds of tomatoes had been processed here by 6 o'clock this afternoon as the buying of Central Texas' most promising tomato crop in history began.

The streets of this Rebertson County town were crowded with trucks throughout the day and the greenwrap shed opened at 1 o'clock.

Burt Johnson, manager of the shed here, said tonight that the shed would operate far into the night to grade the 80 truck loads of tomatoes which were waiting to be unloaded.

Johnson said the tomatoes which moved to market here today were "fair." He said many of the tomatoes had been picked too soon, however.

Farmers were registering their complaints, too. Prices paid for the tomatoes here today were four and one-half cents per pound for grade one, and two cents for grade two tomatoes.

Of the approximate 42,000 pounds of tomatoes which had been processed by 6 p. m. today 30,000 pounds were grade one and 12,000 pounds were grade two.

REDS CLAMP LID ON IN NEW BLOCKADE BERLIN

BERLIN, May 18—The Russians put restrictions today on motor traffic to Berlin and the Soviet zone. Western German officials said the move was prompted by a decline in the value of the Soviet zone East mark.

Meanwhile, four-power talks on easing trade and traffic snarls apparently broke down. All this occurred only a week after the lifting of the Soviet blockade of Berlin and the Western counter-blockade of Eastern Germany.

The Russians suddenly halted all Western German trucks at Helmstedt that did not have a cargo stamp from the Soviet Economic Commission. They also shut off Berlin-bound German freight traffic at the Hof Checkpoint and told drivers that Helmstedt—the border station on the main route to Berlin—was the only permissible crossing point.

This was a new interpretation of an old four-power agreement fixing Helmstedt as the only general crossing point for allied traffic. German traffic had always used various entry routes despite the agreement.

Said C. A. Dix, American Transport chief:

"This is the 'subtle blockade' beginning all over again."

15 GUARDSMEN MAKE HOOD RIFLE RANGE

Fifteen enlisted men of Battery C, 649th Anti-aircraft Artillery Battalion participated in the Battalion's first week-end familiarization firing on the rifle range at Camp Hood on last Saturday and Sunday, and a number of high scores were reported.

The Guardsmen made the trip in their own vehicles, leaving Cameron about 6 o'clock Saturday morning, and joining other units from Taylor, Belton and Temple en route to camp. They bivouced in the field there, sleeping in pup tents and eating in a battaiion mess tent. Familiarization firing with carbines was conducted on Saturday and firing for a record on Sunday.

Cameron Horses Win At Empty Saddle Club Show In Marlin

Cameron horses captured the spotlight in certain events at the Empty Saddle Club show held in Marlin Thursday night and one horse, Honest John, owned by Marvin Ethridge and ridden by Make McDermott won first in reining class.

Honest John has won first place 3 years in a row at Marlin. He is a very fine show horse and was ridden superbly by McDermott in his triumph last night.

Lyle McDermott placed second last night in the reining class with his horse Thorn.

Soapsuds M a 10 months old filly owned by Make McDermott won first place in halter class and will compete for the grand championship to-night in the halter class.

Many here feel that Cameron is giving away too much to other communities in these shows. Cameron can and should have a show of its own and could have one of the best in Texas.

These shows are inexpensive and are well attended. Will we have a horse show for which we built facilities several years ago, or will we be just keep things like they are?

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Two Heads Are Better Than One (Or None)

I get a kick out of buying stuff down at the hardware store. And I always ask for a little advice from one of the two brothers who run it, because I know beforehand exactly what the answer will be.

Like when I needed a new garden hose. "Henry," I says, "how about this new plastic hose—is it really as good as rubber?" "Well," he says, "I'm inclined to think it is—but you'd better ask Tom."

I found Tom in back and asks him the same question. "Well," says Tom, "in my opinion it is—but you'd better ask Henry." "I already have," I says, "and when you two cautious old codgers agree I'd bet my life on the decision."

From where I sit, your own opinion is worth a lot—but so's the other fellow's. That's why I keep saying, over and over, let's be tolerant of the other person's point of view—whether it's on politics or farming— or whether you like milk shakes and he prefers a temperate glass of beer.

When you gotta stop -you wanta stop!

"It can stop on a dime," the salesman promised you, "—and leave nine cents change!"

And your Buick did—when it was new and brake linings unworn and everything factory-tight and fresh.

But brake linings wear—lights grow dim with time—tires can lose their bite and traction.

And with a whole summer's driving ahead, what better time than this to bring your Buick back to new-car peak in all those details that mean so much to safety?

Check your car--- Check accidents!

Three great service and safety organizations across the country are alerting car-owners everywhere this month on safety-checking their cars.

They list ten vital question marks for you to think about — How are your Brakes? Lights? Tires? Steering? Wheel alignment? Defective glass? Rear-view mirror? Muffler? Windshield wipers? Horn?

Be sure your family rides in safety—ask your Buick service man to look over these check-points this month—and join the great drive for driving safety!

Our men, trained in Buick ways, will give you brakes that stop you as Buicks should, with new brake linings that are right in size and brake drums turned to perfect round.

They can replace sealed-beam headlights to give you new-bulb brilliance—and while they're at it, check battery, voltage, wiring and headlamp-aim to boot.

In a word, they'll renew your Buick with the same care and interest they would lavish on their own—and do it at no greater cost than for just ordinary service.

So drop in. Get set for some summer fun that's up to lively Buick standard.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS OF THE UNITED STATES

NEAR BILLION CLEARS FOR U. S. PROGRAM

The U. S. Senate has unanimously passed a bill providing $751,440,690 for flood control and rivers and hadbors projects after beating back three efforts to trim the amount as much as 40 per cent.

It was the fourth straight defeat for economy-minded Senators who are trying to balance the budget without raising taxes by reducing Federal spending. Their only remaining hope apparently is to pass a resolution calling for a blanket cut in spending.

The action was taken after stormy debate in which Senator Paul Douglas, Democrat of Illinois, reminded that the measure once was called the "pork barrel" bill and voiced fear that "however succulent the slices, it is still the same old bologna."

Senators Dennis Chavez of New Mexico and Tom Connally of Texas engaged in a vote duel, with Chavez blocking a unanimous consent request by Connally to add $500,000 for immediate flood control work on the Trinity River running through flood-bound Fort Worth.

Chavez reminded Connally that he had blocked action last week on a river compact which Chavez had pleaded was urgently needed by New Mexico voters.

Supporters of the measure accused Douglas, who was elected under a New Deal label, of being reactionary. They said he was trying to stymie projects which would help the country.

Douglas called for a $300,000,000, or 40 per cent, cut in the bill. He said many flood control and rivers and harbors projects could just as well be put off until slack times when they will be needed just as much and will provide jobs as well.

J. C. Wallace, manager of the Crazy Water Co., in Thorndale made a business trip to Mineral Wells recently. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Dan Collins of Cameron.

DOES NOT LIKE LABOR BILL COMPROMISE

President Truman today publicly spanked Speaker Sam Rayburn and other House leaders for trying to compromise on his bill to repeal the Taft-Hartley labor-management law.

"They never had any consideration whatever for me," he said.

Rayburn had no comment on the President's statement.

Chairman John Lesinki, Democrat of Michigan, of the House Labor Committee, commented that the view of all Democrats had to be considered.

"Of course, we are going to get a bill through the House," he said. "But legislation is up to House members and not up to the President."

Mr. Truman used that unusually blunt language in a letter to President A. F. Whitney of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to emphasize his refusal to accept any Taft-Hartley compromise.

He said he shared Whitney's view "that it is much better to go down fighting for what is right than to compromise your principles."

But the President, who said recently that there is plenty of time during his four-year term to make good on his campaign pledge of repeal, predicted confidently that his original repeal bill will be passed.

FORMER DEFENSE HEAD PLUNGES TO DEATH

The poem refers to the agonies of Ajax, the legendary Greek hero who lost his mind after becoming famous for his bravery in battle. It depicts Ajax as being "comfortless, nameless, hopeless, save in the dark prospects of the yawning grave."

The Navy quickly ordered a board of inquiry to study the case. It will begin work tomorrow. The order was issued by Rear Admiral Morton D. Willicutts, chief medical officer at the hospital.

Apparently the board's job will be to determine, among other things, why Forrestal was left unattended long enough for him to reach the window. He entered the hospital seven weeks ago a condition described as nervous exhaustion resulting from overwork. He recently was reported greatly improved.

An official statement by the hospital said:

Mr. James Forrestal took his own life at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md., at 2 a. m., (1 a. m., EST) by climbing out of window adjacent to his room on the 16th floor.

"He was dressed in a dressing gown with the sash from gown wrapped around his neck. The noise from falling body was heard by nurse on seventh floor and immediately reported. The body was found on the roof of the passageway of the third floor. He was wearing a wrist watch which is still running.

"He was recently believed improving, was allowed visitors by his own request and free use of the telephone. The book 'An Anthology of World Poetry,' was lying on the radiator beside his bed and had been opened to the poem 'Chorus From Ajax' dealing with death and the grave."

Peaches and Plums Should Be Protected Against Insects Now

About 1 to 5 per cent of the actual buds on the trees turn out to be peaches. This year thre has been a higher set of fruit buds to the end that there are too many cases of too much fruit on the trees. Now is the time to thin. The fruit should be spaced four to six inches apart on the twigs and branches. Thinning can be done by taking a piece of spray hose or yard hose twelve to eighteen inches in length and fasten it to a wooden handle so that the branches may be hit a light blow with the hose. When properly done, this will remove a good part of the peaches which is essential on heavy bearing or heavily loaded trees.

Tomatoes Flooding 3 Central Texas Marketing Sheds

Tomatoe sheds at Bremond, Marlin and Rosebud have shipped out a quarter of a million pounds of tomatoes after less than 24 hours operation.

The tomatoes shipped yesterday and last night from Central Texas —about nine carloads altogether— meant that farmers had already received about $9,000 for the first day's harvest of one of this area's newest truck crops.

Prices paid the farmers for the tomatoes yesterday were 4 1-2 cents at Bremond and Marlin and 5 cents at Rosebud for grade one tomatoes. Two cents was paid at each of the sheds for grade two tomatoes.

Farmers were complaining about the prices being paid for tomatoes at each of the green-wrap sheds and shed operators were complaining that many of the farmers had picked tomatoes too soon.

Sanford Hancock of Marlin, an official of the General Products Corp., which is operating the sheds at Marlin and Bremond, explained the reason for the low price being paid for the tomatoes:

"The freeze in the Rio Grande Valley this year made it necessary for farmers there to replant their crop this year. As a result the crop in the Valley was delayed and Central Texas tomatoes are moving to market about the same time the Valley crop is moving," said Hancock.

He explained that about 280 car loads a day were being shipped from the Valley.

WIFE OF DOG SERGEANT FOUND MURDERED MON

The battered and slashed body of the wife of a dog sergeant at Harlem Prison Farm, near Sugar Land, was found in the home of the dog sergeant by a prison trusty about 10 a. m. Monday.

The body of Mrs. R. P. Stovall, about 38, was found on the blood-spattered floor of the Stovall house by Leopold Gonzales, 24, trusty assigned to keep the Stovall home.

Justice of the Peace A. M. Horn of Sugar Land, called to conduct an inquest, has ordered an autopsy by the Fort Bend County health officer.

"There is no doubt she was murdered," Judge Horn said.

Under the slain woman's body was found a bent paring knife. Judge Horn said that Mrs. Stovall's head had been battered several times "with some blunt instrument" and that her throat was slashed. She also was cut several times on the right arm.

Her body was found on the floor between the bedroom and kitchen in the guardhouse occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Stovall.

Judge Horn said there appeared to have been a struggle in the hallway where the body was found.

"Blood spattered the wall, door facing and over the entire length of the hall," he said.

Meanwhile, it was reported that a freshly washed suit of convict clothing which appeared to have been blood stained had been found at the prison laundry. The report could not be confirmed by prison officials who were busy questioning a number of the convicts at the farm.

Warden Joe Hines and Prison General Manager O. B. Ellis were conducting the investigation. They called in Loyd Frazier, of the Harris County sheriff's department, to check for fingerprints.

Warden Hines said he was checking under fingernails of some 30 convicts who were working near the guard's house in an attempt to find whether there may be fragments of human hair or skin.

Mr. Stovall had left his house about 6:30 a. m. Monday and was in the prison fields with a work crew of convicts when notified of his wife's death, Warden Hines said.

Gonzales told Hines that he had gone to the prison commisary for some milk and that when he returned some 40 minutes later he found Mrs. Stovall dead on the floor.

Hines said Mrs. Stovall may have been attacked by someone who knew that the trusty made the trip to the commissary each morning about the same time.

Convict Confesses Slaying Wife Of Prison Farm Guard

Joe Juarez, 22-year-old El Paso convict, confessed tonight to the assault slaying of Mrs. R. P. Stovall, 57, wife of a Harlem Prison Farm guard Monday morning.

The confession of Juarez was part of a 45-minute wire recording of questioning by investigating officers.

Sheriff Ruce Lincecum, on his return here from the prison farm tonight, said he will file a charge of murder with malice against Juarez before Justice of the Peace Henry Kacal here tomorrow morning.

Sheriff Lincecum was one of a group of investigators who spent a sleepless 34 hours in questioning Harlem convicts in their search for the slayer of Mrs. Stovall.

Those who assisted in the investigation listened with grim faces to a play back of the recording in the small bedroom of Farm Captain Joe Hines' headquarters .

Juarez said in his confession that he did not intend to kill Mrs. Stovall but that he did intend to assault her.

He said, in the recording, that he entered the Stovall home at 9:05 a. m. Monday on the pretense of learing if Mrs. Stovall wanted some potatoes.

When she resisted, Juarez said, he grabbed her and tore her clothes. Then, he said, he slashed her throat four or five times and stabbed her twice in the heart.

The murder weapon was a large paring knife.

"I was all alone," he said, when he entered the house.

He said he left the house at 9:17 a. m., just 12 minutes after the first blow was struck.

Officers repeatedly asked him if he had an accomplice. Juarez continued to deny vigorously that he had one.

MILAM COUNTY QUOTA FIXED AT $50,000

In recent months the citizens of Cameron have been called upon to donate money to various causes in an almost endless sequence of drives and campaigns. They have responded generously, as they always do in undertakings to promote the common welfare. This is as it should be, because little of lasting value could ever be accomplished except for such cooperation.

Now comes the Opportunity Drive for the sale of Series E Savings Bonds and, by contrast, it is heartening indeed to find a campaign in which the "contributor" is, himself, the principal beneficiary. This drive might well have the slogan "This One is for You", because when you buy a U. S. Savings Bond you are contributing to the future welfare of yourself and of your loved ones. You are setting aside money in the safest of all investments, on which you will draw a good rate of interest; and you are accumulating a reserve of savings that will serve you well in time of emergency or provide you with the financial means to achieve ambitions that otherwise would be unattainable.

The Opportunity Drive opens today; it will continue for six weeks, through June 30. Its appeal is for you to "Put More Opportunity in Your Future." It is, in effect, a drive to promote thrift among the people of this community and of this country; its promise is that the family that saves regularly will have a fuller, richer life than those that don't.

There are few, if any, savings programs that are more convenient. Many companies maintain the Payroll Savings Plan so that employees can buy bonds where they work by deductions from their wages or salaries. Nearly every bank has the Bond-A-Month Plan, where the customers has the cost of a bond deducted from his checking account every month. Both plans are automatic—once a person signs up for either, all he has to do is sit back and receive his bonds at the prescribed intervals.

Quotas in the drive are: National, $1,040,000,000; Texas, $36,950,000, and Milam County, $50,000. The Opportunity Drive looks like a good opportunity for us to salt away a tidy sum of savings for future use. Remember, this is the drive that is for you.

BOOKS ARE VITAL TO WELL ORDERED LIFE

Books for an undernourished community culture, in the opinion of a few, are the most vital need in Cameron to-day.

The Methodist Church is going to do something about it, so far as their membership is concerned. They are going to build a library at the church and the library will not be filled with religious books alone, but will offer a balanced diet of good literature under proper supervision.

A Council to establish a library for members of the First Methodist church has been formed with Carroll Green as chairman. Dr. George Bowman heads the finance committee and Mrs. Thelbert Crittenden will be secretary and treasurer.

The Council met at the Crittenden home Tuesday evening to plan a drive for $500 to start next week.

Since there is no public library in Cameron and there is a great need for wholsome reading materials for the entire family, the church has long planned to supply this need, it was said by Mrs. Carroll Green who is taking a special interest in the plan.

Books will not be limited to religious work, but must be of wholesome nature, as well as entertaining for all ages, said Mrs. Green.

Members of the Library Council are: Mrs. C. M. Hicks and Miss Elizabeth Hassler and the book advisory committee are: Niley Smith, Sr., Mrs. Leland Green, Sr., Mrs. J. M. McLean, Albert McCullin, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Green, Mrs. C. C. Smith, Jr.

Miss Hassler, church secretary will serve as librarian.

Pecan Trees Must Be Sprayed Now

During the next three weeks pecan trees must be sprayed to prevent casebearer damage. When the ends of the small nutlets have turned brown, spraying operations should commence. The mixture is three pounds of 50 per cent wettable DDT, six pounds of wettable sulphur to one hundred gallons of water. Thoroughness in applying the spray solution under pressure is important. The twigs of the pecan trees must be wet thoroughly if good control is to be obtained.

Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Sanderford of Somerville were in Cameron Friday visiting friends.

ARLINGTON CEMETERY BURIAL FOR WAR HERO

The funeral honors due to a military hero will be paid to James V. Forrestal, who broke under a nine-year burden of high service in war and peace.

The national military establishment announced today the nation's first sercretary of defense, who took his own life, will be interred in Arlington National cemetery with military ceremonies.

The funeral has been scheduled for 9 a. m. (CST) Wednesday. Religious services will be held at the graveside with President Truman in attendance.

Forrestal's body will be taken directly from the hospital to the cemetery. It will be transported through the cemetery on a caisson and escorted by small detachments of the three military services.

Representatives of the military services will be at the cemetery and a 19-gun salute will be fired.

Attendance will be restricted to members of the cabinet, government executives, members of the congressional armed services committees and personal friends of the family. The family has expressed a wish that the funeral ceremony be a simple as possible.

He plunged to his death from the 16th floor of the Naval Medical center at Bethesda, Md., where he had been a patient since a few days after turning over his cabinet post to Louis A. Johnson in late March.

He left behind only an ancient Greek poem of despair and death, portions of it copied out of a book by his own hand.

Through all tributes today ran the theme that Forrestal was a war casualty.

The native New Yorker will be buried near the grave of Frank Knox, wartime secretary of the navy whom Forrestal succeeded prior to unification of the armed services.

Mrs. Forrestal, who was in Paris at the time of her husband's death, returned to Washington by plane today and expressed a wish that the funeral be simple.

A naval board of inquiry, meanwhile, was named to look into the cirmumstances of Forrestal's death. What it might examine was not certain in advance.

From the hospital came a denial of a report by Radio Commentator Drew Pearson that Forrestal had made a previous suicide attempt at the hospital about two weeks ago.

DRUNK DRIVER PAYS $50.00

Louis Garcia has paid the minimum fine of $50 in county court here on a plea of guilty that he drove his car while drunk. The lowest fine is $50.00 and suspension of license to drive is automatically a part of the law.

Another case here this week found a man who had paid a fine of $75.00 in another county, driving his car in violation of the suspension law and was fined $25.00.

Educated Horses Are Featured In Circus For Scouts June 17-18

Lovers of fine horseflesh will revel in the fine exhibition of educated horses and ponies which will be presented by the Gainesville Community Circus, when it exhibits in Waco on June 17 and 18 at 8:00 p. m. under the auspices of the Heart O'Texas Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Foremost among the trained animal acts is Vern Brewer's famous liberty horse troupe, which represents the acme of horse training. This act has not only appeared in the Gainesville Community Circus for a number of years, but was seleceted as the Texas Feature in the famous Rose Bowl Circus at Pasadena, California, on July 4, 1946, before 60,000 persons.

A trio of highly educated high schooled and dancing horses will be presented by the mistress and masters of dressage, Gerry Murrell, Portis M. Sims and Brewer.

For the entertainment of the kiddies, there are two dozen handsome little Shetland ponies, and the youngsters are invited to visit the horse tent with their parents during the day to see the handsome little animals at close range.

Among them is Peruna, for two years mascot of the famous Southern Methodist University Mustangs, traveling all over the nation by air with the club. Peruna is the clown pony of the six-horse military act, presented by Gerry Murrell. In addition to their drills, the ponies appear in the ring with dog and monkey riders in bareback exhibitions, and pull the colorful tableau and cage wagons in the stirring inaugural pageant, this year titled "Here Comes the Parade!"

Then there are the broad-beamed sturdy bareback horses which pace the ring undisturbed by anything that goes on about them, to make sure that the bareback riders have dependable mounts when they leap on and off the galloping animals.

Never in its 20 year history has the Gainesville circus carried so many horses and ponies as this season, due to the reproduction of the old-time circus parade which opens the two-hour performance.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gamble and daughter of Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Miller of Ad Hall were Sunday guests in the home of Mrs. Walter Harris and Verna.

BURLINGTON FARMERS PLANT 7500 ACRES

The first 1949 application from Milam County for the free cotton classification and market news services was received this week from the Burlington Gin Cotton Improvement Association, according to the cotton classing office of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Austin.

J. J. Foshea is president of this group of 117 farmers, who are planting about 7,500 acres of cotton, the majority of it in the Mebane variety. The Burlington Gin at Burlington, Texas, of which Pete Benesh is manager, will do the ginning for this association. This is the third year that Mr. Benesh was first in the county in submitting his application. Last season he submitted approximately 94 per cent of his total ginnings for free classification, and he stated that the farmers in his community were becoming quality conscious.

The Department advised that about 80 per cent of the Milam County total ginnings was classified under the Smith-Doxey Act this past season. The quality of cotton produced in the county was higher than that of the State as a whole—75 per cent graded Middling and above compared with 55 per cent for the State. The average staple length for the county was 30.1 thirty-seconds and for the State 29.8 thirty-seconds; the county had 90 per cent of the production stapling 29-32 inch through 1 inch compared with 49 per cent for the state.

BIG FOUR MINISTERS TACKLE SETTLEMENTS

Representatives of the Western Powers and Soviet Russia met in Paris Monday for what may be crucial decisions on the German question and the fate of the world.

Sunday the Foreign ministers of Britain, France and the American Secretary of State agreed to present a solid front in dealing with Russia. It was known that the United States favors breaking off the conference if agreements cannot be reached in three weeks.

Basicly the following objectives will be sought:

1. A firm stand in support of the West German state. No compromise on any plan of German unification that would jeopardize the principles of democratic freedom embodied in the West German Bonn constitution.

2. Opposition to any Russian proposal for withdrawal of occupation troops. The West would probably seek to defer such a proposal for study, and counter with suggestions for a gradual reduction over a period of time. U. S. agreement to this policy is reassuring to France and Britain.

3. Attempt to secure an iron clad agreement with Russia on Berlin. This question may be pushed ahead of all others because of rioting sweeping the city, with a view to reaching a working agreement even if no settlement is found on Germany as a whole.

4. Demand that Eastern Germany hold a free democratic election under four-power control before East German representatives are recognized as bargaining agents—an implied rejection of the communist "people's congress" as the legitimate government of the soviet zone.

5. Demand that postwar changes in Germany's Eastern frontiers—in favor of Poland—be considered provisional until confirmed by a peace conference.

6. Determination not to allow the conference to be used as a soviet propaganda sounding board. The American delegation favors ending the meeting in three weeks unless a definite agreement is in sight by then.

To see America -- go through this door!

If a visitor to this country set out to find true American atmosphere, certainly one of the first places he should go is the nearest drug store. For America's pharmacies—from Maine to California—have a character all their own.

It's really a blend of many things: The prescription department, stocked with the latest products of medical science. The shelves of bright, attractive merchandise. The friendly surroundings . . . often with the familiar soda fountain inviting you to refreshment. The ever-present spirit of community service.

And the pharmacist himself is essentially a product of America—where one finds a larger number of skilled professional men than in any other country. The scientific career he selected is a typical American opportunity. And he, in return, has contributed a proud service which has helped to make this nation the healthiest one on earth.

Get better acquainted with your pharmacist. Trade with him—he's a man you can rely on.

To meet your needs in 1959...
we have to start now!

Most of the oil you are using today was found more than ten years ago. It takes about that long to explore and develop potential resources to their full, efficient capacity.

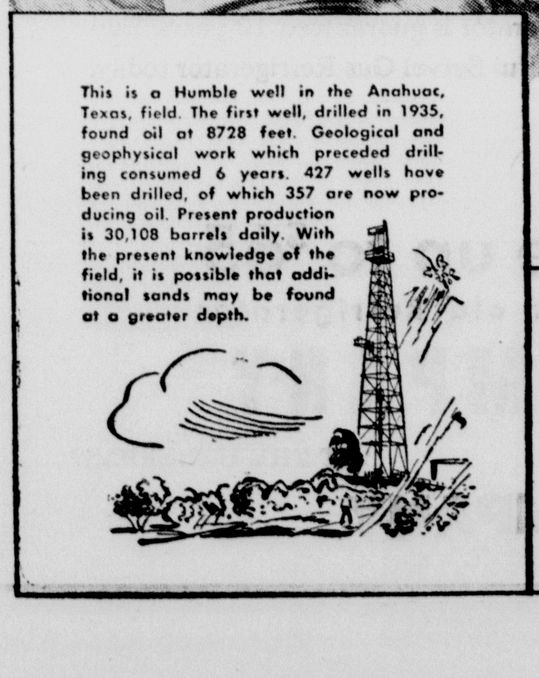
First, you have to find the oil. Geologists and geophysicists spend months of scientific study before they pronounce an area a "prospect." It takes more months to drill exploratory wells; and if they find oil, it takes years to drill the other wells that define the field, establish the amount of oil in it, and bring it into full production.

Today, this year, continuously, we must develop the oil resources we may need — without notice — on some future tomorrow. In spite of minor fluctuations in demand, the need for oil has increased steadily over the years; and every now and again, there is a sudden, heavy, unexpected need for additional supplies, like the demand for fuel oil on the Eastern seaboard during the cold winter of 1947-48. Furthermore, we must face the fact that in this atomic era, in this day of the jet airplane and the long-range submarine, the U. S. oil industry must prepare now to meet the needs of any future national emergency.

That's why the American oil industry is undertaking the heavy costs of exploring the Tidelands of the continental shelf in order to bring the oil fields that geologists think are there into full production now. Rest assured that the oil will not be wasted; on the contrary, it will be ready for instant use when you and the nation need it.

HUMBLE

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING CO.



This is a Humble well in the Anahuac, Texas, field. The first well, drilled in 1935, found oil at 8728 feet. Geological and geophysical work which preceded drilling consumed 6 years. 427 wells have been drilled, of which 357 are now producing oil. Present production is 30,108 barrels daily. With the present knowledge of the field, it is possible that additional sands may be found at a greater depth.

This is Humble production in the Friendswood, Texas, field. Exploratory work was begun here in 1928; and the discovery well was drilled in 1937. By 1941, Humble had 211 producing wells in the field; these wells supplied 66,110,000 barrels of oil toward the winning of World War II.

This alkylate plant was placed in operation by Humble at Baytown refinery in 1938. Alkylate is an essential element in the manufacture of aviation gasoline, and by December 14, 1944, Baytown had provided a billion gallons of 100-octane gasoline for Allied airplanes.

GRABS OFF CONGRESS SEAT IN FINISH FIGHT

NEW YORK, May 17—Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., was victorious tonight in his first bid for public office, winning a sweeping victory over both Tammany Hall Democrats and Republicans in a special election in the 20th New York Congressional District.

The handsome, 35-year-old son of the late President proved that the Roosevelt name has not lost its magic with the voting public. His victory came by a margin that had not been expected even by his supporters.

It was a triumphant battle just as his father fought early in his political career 35 years ago.

Despite the support of Tammany Hall and backing from Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath, his chief opponent, Municipal Justice Benjamin Shalleck, did not make a close race of it. Young Roosevelt took the lead from the start and increased it steadily.

Unofficial but complete returns from the 179 election districts from Manhattan's west side "melting pot" where New Dealer Sol Bloom was elected to 14 straight terms until his death last March gave:

Roosevelt 41,119; Shalleck 24,478.

The Republican candidate, insurance executive William H. McIntyre trailed far behind. Returns from 150 districts gave him 9,996 vote — a showing far poorer than had been anticipated in the hope that votes would be split between Shalleck and Roosevelt.

It was a resounding defeat for Tammany Hall which had passed Roosevelt by when he sought the regular Democratic nomination. As a result, he sought the office under the banners of the Liberal and Four Freeas an organization guided by racketdoms party and turned on Tammany eers and gamblers.

JOKER IN BLOCKADE LIFTING DISCOVERED

BERLIN, May 12—American officials said today a Soviet "joker" apparently has turned up in the Big Four agreement which resulted in the removal of the blockades in Germany.

Land traffic flowed smoothly into Western Berlin with the lifting this morning of Soviet barriers established last June. The people celebrated.

As the day progressed, however, it became clear the Russians would not permit German trucks to leave this city for the Western zones of Germany without either a Russian stamp or one from the Soviet-backed German Eastern Economic Branch. Western Berlin is separated from the rest of the Western occupied Germany by 100 miles of Soviet-controlled territory.

If Soviet authorities enforce their claim to authority over Western Berlin's exports they could keep 2,000,000 residents of the American, British and French sectors of the city on a basis of "virtual charity," said Brig.-Gen. Frank L. Howley, American commandant here. He declared Western Berlin "must export to the west to live" and added:

"The American and British airlift can meet any emergency now—it can keep some exports moving out—but the airlift isn't intended to go on forever."

Despite this seeming hitch, 250,000 Berliners poured out of their homes and attended two giant rallies celebrating the end of the blockade.

The very size and existence of the two rallies and the tone of the speeches delivered at each one gave evidence of the bitter division existing between Communists and anti-Communists.
